IN THE COUGHLIN TRIAL.

TESTIMONY AT YESTERDAY'S SESSION-TWO OF THE JURORS ILL-EXPERTS ON THE STAND.

Chicago, Dec. 29.-In the Coughlin trial sensational developments are hinted at within the next few days. It is said by the friends of Coughlin that Alexander Sullivan will take the witness stand and swear that he never authorized Coughlin to make certain statements attributed to him which Mrs. Foy testified to, It is also stated that Coughlin will take the stand and swear that ver used the language Mrs. Foy says he used In this way it is expected to completely discredit Mrs. Foy's testimony with the jury. The friends of Dr. Cronin profess to be confident of their ability to break down the testimony of both Alexander Sullivan and Daniel Coughlin on cross-examination, and predict that their taking the stand would make the buttal far transcend in interest anything heretofore developed in this trial. The most important witness in the rebuttal, should Mr. Sullivan testify, would be, it is said, Judge Grinnell, who, in the pinion of the prosecution, would be a highly imtant witness as to the motive for the murder Cronin. It is said that friends of Dr. Cronin been busily engaged lately in the examination of hitherto unpublished evidence in the shape of explain. It is expected that these telegrams telegrams, which they intend to ask Mr. Sullivan to explain. It is expected that these telegrams will throw important light on the case.

Fac-similes of a cable dispatch sent by Sullivan to London, May 7, 1859, and of a telegram sent by him to Patrick Egan at Lincoln, Neb., on May 6, 1889, are printed in an evening newspaper. Inferentially the charge is made through a list of questions addressed to Sullivan that through jugsling with certain cable messages immediately following the murder of Dr. Cronin, he caused the belief to be spread through a Chicago morning newspaper that Cronin was on his way to London to act the part of a traitor to the Irish cause.

Mrs. Jonas Carlson was put through the rest of her cross-examination in the trial to-day, and made the same impression as her husband. She gave the same unsatisfactory answers as to why she knew it was the 4th of May, the 26th of March, etc. She contradicted her husband by saving that Martin Burke wore a stiff hat when she identified him as Frank Williams in jail here. Carlson swore that Burke had a soft hat.

Garbert Wardell was called to tell the jury that he saw two men of different height walking ahead of him at 10:30 on the night of May 4, 1889, on North Ashland-ave., where he lived. They entered the Carlson cottage by the front door, and the witness then went home. Next morning as he passed the cottage he noticed rea drops which looked like blood on the plank walk between the cottage and road, and on the steps leading to the front door.

Wardell's testimony was interrupted by the indisposition of Jurors Bruce and Weinberger. They withdrew to the Judge's chamber and were attended by the County Physician. Bruce has chronic kidney trouble. Weinberger's complaint is appendictly, but the doctor said there was no present danger of a mistral on account of either juror. Both were soon back in their seats.

The first witness called in the afternoon session was Professor Haines, the head of the department of chemical tests he had come to the conclusion that it w

SLIGHT CLEWS TO THE MURDER MYSTERY

A BOY TELLS OF A MAN SEEN COMING FROM THE HOUSE OF MISS PETTY IN NEWARK EARLY IN THE MORNING.

clew in the murder mystery at Newark was furnished to the police yesterday. This was the statement of Edward Miller, living at No. 85 Commerce-st., a few doors from the house in which Miss Elizabeth Petty was murdered. Miller drives delivery wagon for a baker, and generally leaves his home to go to work at about 2:30 a. m. each day. He was a few minutes late last Tuesday morning, and as he opened the gate in front of his parents' house he saw a man walk out of the gate of the Petty house, three doors above. Miller turned up the street to pass the Petty house, and as he went by the man he reflected upon the strangeness of a man leaving the house at that hour of the morning. He knew that Miss Petty had an aversion to men, and would never permit one to cross her threshold. After he passed the stranger Miller turned to look at him, when the stranger, Miller turned to look at him, when the stranger, he says, bowed his head, pulled his hat over his face and raised the large collar of a pendacket he wore to cover his neck and the lower part of his face. The stranger started at a rapid pace north along Mulberry-st, over the canal bridge and kept on in the direction of the Centre-st, station of the Pennsylvania Railroad.

Another development last evening throws doubt on the statement of two persons who believed they saw Miss Petty making purchases on Christmas morning, and favors the theory that the murder was committed Sunday. It is the story of one of the neighbors. Mrs. Doer keeps a boarding-house at No. 81 Commerce-st, adjoining the Petty house on the east. She said last evening that she and her daughter, a girl of sixteen years, went into the rear yard at 11 o'clock on Sunday night. The daughter said there was a man in Miss Petty's house, and that she could see him through the broken slats of the shutters of a window on the second floor at the northeast end of the kitchen extension.

The Chief of Police, Hopper, said yesterday that if the story of young Miller was accurate, there was hardly a doub; that the murder was committed by the man he saw leave the Petty house. The police took up the clew at once and began a thorough search for the unknown man.

Judge Brown, in the United States Circuit Court, yes-Judge Brown, in the United States Circuit Court, yes-terday appointed ex-Mayor A. Oakey Hall and Edward W. Hall and Ward were appointed in Newsk on the motion of W. E. D. Stokes's counsel. Now W. E. D. Stokes has had them named in this State. There will doubtless be a conflict of authority as soon as Mesers. Hall and Ward qualify.

Statements were published yesterday that George W. Savage, United States Consul at Dundee, Scotland, had died at that place. These statements were erroneous.

THE FIGHT AGAINST TAMMANY HALL.

Since he has been getting down to solid business, naming names and presenting specifications, ness, naming names and presenting specifications, they begin to think that Parkhurst is the name of the man to be feared.

When Dr. Parkhurst declares that New-York has the most corrupt city government on earth he should couple his remark with the demand that should couple his remark with the demand that the mental and moral status of its responsible head. "Of course," said Mr. Hackett to-night, "I am not here laboring for Mr. Dunn or for any other candidate, and I would like to say that my judgment upon the matter is merely based upon what I hear from certain Assemblymen who are supporting Mr. Dunn, He has the support of the Republican Assemblymen from the southern tier, who is from Steuben County, in the southern tier, who is from Steuben County, in the southern tier, Mr. Dunn has a good war record, and therefore in this respect is upon an equality with Mr. Orr, of Buffalo, who has had considerable Grand Army support."

"I am supported," said Mr. Orr. "by the five Republican Assemblymen of Erle County and by a large proportion of the Republican Assemblymen from Western New-York." Mr. Young said: "I have come to Albany supported by the nine Republican Assemblymen-elect of Kings County, by the two Republican Assemblymen-elect of Gueens County and by Mr. Highle, of Suffolk County. Assemblyman Wray, of Brocklyn, and Assemblymen Fairbrother and Vacheron, of Oueens County, were hard at work all day in Mr. Young's behalf. There are so few of the Republican Assemblymen here that it is impossible to determine the relative strength of the four candidates for clerk, and what addis to the difficulty of gaining this information is the circumstance that they have semblymen already here declare that they have semblymen already here declare that they have semblymen will be here, and a clearer insight into the cierkship situation will be obtainable.

He is probably in that condition when one loses all feeling of pain. Martin has given way under a serious stomach complaint and a badly swollen knee. He told his friends last night that he realized that it was impossible to overtake the leaders in his present condition. He felt that if he retained third place he would do well.

Van Emburg, the Arlington youth, is the real wonder of the race, and the youngster receives more applause than all the other contestants put together. There is a healthy color to his face and a brightness of eye surprising in one so young after such a severe struggle. He spurts with the same remarkable bursts of spend that he showed on the opening night. OF ITS LINES.

Union Railroad of New-York were filed with the Secretary of Stat - to-day. The filing yesterday with the Secretary of State by the officers of the Union Railway Company of the proposed lines which this company now expects should wish to secure further additions to the streets through which the tracks of their railroad are to be run.

That One-hundred-and-thirty-fifth-st, was stolen there can be no doubt. Tracks are not laid on Sumlay unless there is something wrons. The new grab is as follows: From Third-ave, to Eighth-ave, in Madison-ave, from the bridge to One-hundred-and-thritteth-st, from Madison-ave, to Eighth-ave, over the bridge across the Harlem River from Third-ave, to Second-ave, and along Second-ave, to One-hundred-and-twenty-fifth-st, along Fourth-ave, to One-hundred-and-twenty-fifth-st, along Fourth-ave, and from Washington Bridge to Boscob-ave, and along that avenue to Jerome-ave, along Broadway, north of Kingsbridge, to the city limits.

This desire for extension is said to be another one of the schemes by which the deadly trolley is to be worked into this city. A protest already has been filed with the Mayor against the One-hundred-and-thirty-fifth-st, steal by the Board of Fire Underwriters, on account of the additional danser to property which the trolley brings. But these extensions are desired by the Union Italiway Company, Edward Murphy's, Richard Croker's and Anthony N. Brady's company, and the probabilities are that the extensions will be permitted, the opposition of the taxpayers and property owners to the contrary notwithstanding.

the fears of the State Democratic leaders in St. Paul, and it is said that a prominent politician was summoned here and instructed that no resolution favoring the Wilson bill should be passed.

When the time came for the calling of the meeting to order, the Democratic crowd attempted a snap organization, and without waiting for a reading of the call or giving opportunity for protest they elected a chairman. The other side proceeded to elect a chairman also. For nearly an hour, in a confusion that allowed scarcely a word to be heard, the two meetings were carried on in the same piace. Finally, after both sides had declared their resolutions, the two meetings separated. The citizens' meeting reassembled in the Temple Theatre and readopted its resolution, while the Democratic continued their session in the City Hall. The resolutions adopted by the citizens' meeting call upon Major Baldwin, the member sof Congress from this district, to oppose free ore and protest against the Wilson schedules. The other resolutions demand that Major Baldwin stand by the Chicago platform as embodied in the Wilson bill, indose the Civeland Administration, and declare that St. Louis County is not afraid of Cuban or Spanish competition under a free-ore senedule.

THE ADVISORY COMMITTEE OF ARCHITECTS SELECTS 6 OUT OF 134 AS THE BEST OFFERED, BUT SAYS THAT NOT ONE IS ACCEPTABLE.

The Tammany Hall advocates of a new municipal building to be built upon the site of the present City Hall have not been favored by fortune in their scheme. In spite of all the efforts they have made to secure a grand, comprehensive design of a building which would rival the Hotel de Ville in Paris ad other world-renowned structures of Europe they are in about the same condition of uncertainty as to what sort of a City Hall they will erect as when they started in to exploit the affair in Mayor Grant's first administration. Of the 13t plans which have been received by the commission in response to an invitation addressed to architects in all quarters. ters of the globe, not one of them comes up to expectations. This was the condition which con-fronted the Municipal Building Commission when Stephen Whitney, the Stuarts, the Slawsons and other old New-York families. visory Committee of Architects ample time for a an adjournment of several months to give its Advisory Committee of Architects ample time for a thorough examination of these plans.

The Commission is made up of the Sinking Fund Commissioners—Mayor Gilroy, Recorder Smyth, Controller Myers, Chamberlain O'Donohue and Alderman Brown—and of County Cierk Purroy, Resister Levy and Surrogate Flizzerald. The advisory architects are Professor William R. Ware, Napoleon Le Brun and Edward H. Kendall. The Committee of Architects reported that they had examined all the plans and had come to the conclusion that the six numbered 13, 22, 29, 35, 107 and 113 seemed to be on the whole the best, whether in respect of external appearance or practical convenience. No one of them, however, was perfectly satisfactory, and whichever design might hereafter be accepted by the Commission, it would have to undergo considerable modification before it would meet reasonable requirements.

The report having been read, County Clerk Purroy, who has consistently opposed the site selected by the Commission for many reasons, declared that he was against accepting it, as he did not want the Commission committed to the payment of prizes for designs which the report asserted were not acceptable. Mayor Gilroy replied that he did not think the acceptance of the architects report would have that effect.

Controller Myers, after several interruptions from members which the Mayor said were not at all courteous, when it was remembered that it was the last time the Controller would be present at a meeting of the Commission—made some remarks which reflected seriously upon the advisory architects from the course of the kind that ever was submitted, so far as my experience goes, to a body of this kind. It is the worst, in fact, that I ever saw.'

After a recess to allow the architects opportunity to find out whether the number of plans on file was 132 or 134, and after they had reported that the commission.

An adjournment was taken until Thursday next at the energy of the correct figure, it was decided that commission.

An adjournment was taken until Thursday next at 11 a.m., when an inspection of the plans will take place at the Stewart Building.

ONLY THREE ON ITS TICKET.

THE OPPOSITION AT THE NEW-YORK ATHLETIC CLUB HAS ITS MEETING.

"outs" of the New-York Athletic Club had their meeting in the Carnegie Music Hall last eight, and from the facts that only about sixty-five votes were cast, and that only three opposition nominations were made, it was generally inferred that their movement will not amount to much Walter G. Schuyler was nominated for president against Bartow S. Weeks, and Francis A. Dugre for vice-president against James Whitely, Only for vice-president against James Whitely. Only one nomination for the Board of Governors was made. It was that of Frederick M. Hausling, chairman of the Schuyler faction.

The circular issued by the opposition said that the meeting was called to protest against the action of the Nominating Committee in not acknowledging the receipt of a petition for the nomination of Mr. Schuyler for president; to got a "reform" ticket in nomination and to discuss the "hest interests" of the club.

The friends of Messrs, Works and Whitely are urising all the members to come to the annual meeting and vote, so that if the opposition is making a "still hunt," its placs will be thwarted. The indefatinable services of Messrs, Weeks and Whitely to the club are likely to win them many votes.
